

Associated Neighbour Training

Ofsted Inspection

Most of you will be aware that Neighbour Training has just been inspected by Ofsted—learners and employers were all sent a pre-visit questionnaire to complete.

The results were confirmed today (14 October) and I'm very pleased to say we have been graded 2 (Good). This is great news, particularly as the Inspection process has changed and achieving this level of grade has become more difficult. We would like to thank everyone who returned their questionnaires and also those who were put through the "gruelling" task of an interview with an Inspector. It reminds me of being in the Headmaster's office so I know how you all felt.

- Consulting Engineers, with whom we have now been working for over 15 years, have been given the "Outstanding Contribution" Award (2010) for their work in the field of Road Safety, by AIRSO.

tsp's latest venture, srsCULTUREforschools™ is part of a revolutionary web-based continuous lifetime road safety education process. They have also set up a not-for-profit social enterprise Stilwell Road Safety Limited to deliver this.

Two of its employees, originally trained with Neighbour Training and have been heavily involved: Chris Vaughan (Principal Consultant), undertook an Advanced Management Apprenticeship with assessor Andrew Greenslade. James Bailey (Senior Consultant) achieved an Advanced IT Apprenticeship with Jan Mortlock and John Davey. He is now approaching the end of his MSc in Transport Economics and Appraisal at Edinburgh, Napier University.

Caroline Davey

Julie Tate

This is Julie Tate who works for Horsell Lodge Care Home in Woking. She recently finished the Advanced Apprenticeship in Administration. Julie's Manager Jane Mannion, presented her with the final certificates.
